

The Service Magazine

Published Monthly Under the Direction of the Eightieth Division Veterans Association, 915 Bessemer Building, Pittsburgh, Penna.

DWIGHT H. FEE, Editor
GUY T. VISKNISKKI, Associate Editor
WALTER R. SUPPES, Assistant Editor

ROBERT P. NEVIN, Jr., Advertising Manager
REUEL W. ELTON, General Manager
JACK BERGER, Artist and Cartoonist

Entered as second-class matter October 3, 1919, at the post office at Pittsburgh, Penna., under the Act of March 3, 1879

Vol. I, No. 4

JANUARY, 1920

$2.00 a Year—20c a Copy

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Frontispiece	Jack Berger
What a Former Judge Advocate Thinks of Courts-Martial	Barratt O'Hara— 3
The Historical Significance of Rougemont	Arthur H. Brown— 5
More Stars for the Eightieth	— 6
Insurance	— 8
When Marriage Was a Fad	Helen Fisher— 9
Old Pals of the Army	—10
What They Did When They Got Out
Languorous, Lassitudinous Luther	W. P. Sherman
Our Deserted Villas	W. P. Sherman
Beating the Sword Into a Ploughshare (Cartoons)	Jack Berger—11
Speeding the Motor Truck Train	—12
On With the Dance	—15
Pages from Memory's Sketchbook (Sketches)	Russell Edwards—16
Histories and Rosters of Blue Ridge Division	—18
To My Comrades in the Service	Capt. Hopwood—20
The Bird in the Beam	—21
Salvage	—24
Missing Address Department	—25
Information on War Pictures	—26
Alumni Notes	—29
News, Notes and New Things	—30